LABOUR SECRETARIAT

As kindly permitted by the Law and L.S.G. Secretaries, I (with the Chairman of the Kannada Typewriter Committee appointed by Govt.) proceeded to Mercara, Mangalore, etc. on [redacted] the 15th inst. and returned here this morning.

The next (and final) part of the tour is proposed to be undertaken from about the 1st of Oct. for visiting prominent Kannadigas and Karnataka Sanghas at Bombay, Dharwar, Hubli, Belgaum and Bellary, etc. — which will take about a fortnight as already submitted. I solicit permission before fixing up the programme and writing to the concerned leaders in advance.

As on the previous occasion, the Superintendent, Labour Dept. will attend to my duties, if approved.

44) It is once ascertained that Sri S. G. Narasimhayya, Asst. Secy, Labour Br was on deputation as noted below (vide Routine Note):—

1) From 15.9.1950 to 24.9.1950 (ten days inclusive)

2) from 6.10.1950 to 18.10.1950 (twelve days inclusive)

45) During the above periods the Supdt, Labour Br was placed in additional charge of the duties of the Asst. Secy, Labour Br.

46) The total period of additional charge comes to 23 days. This period is not continuous but in two instalments.

47) It has been ordered in para 16-18 Supra that no charge allowance is admissible for having in charge of additional work for a period of less days and less. (vide paras 16-18 of the linked file).

48) In this case, the 1st period of addl charge is 10 days and the 2nd period is 13 days.

1) The Supt, Labour Br is entitled to draw a charge allowance at the rate of Rs 30/p.m. (being 1/10th the minimum pay of the Asst. Secy for Govt.) for the period he was placed in additional charge of the duties of the Asst-Secy, Labour Dept.

2) The Fin Br may perhaps be consulted whether the Supt, Labour Br may be paid Charge allowance for the total period of 23 days.

2/11/50

3) In para 16 of the note the Fin Secy has noted that no charge allowance is admissible for having in charge of addl. work for a period of ten days and less. In the present case the first item of addl. charge comes to only ten days. No charge allowance is, therefore admissible for this period.

2.11.50

4) In the case of the second period it comes to 13 days and a charge allowance at Rs 30 p.m. becomes admissible for this period. It may perhaps be sanctioned.
